Emma thought she had the perfect life: a beautiful home, a loving husband and a gorgeous son.

She was wrong.

When she wakes up to find herself in hospital, Emma has no memory of how she got there or why her husband and son won't come to see her.

What happened to Emma's family?

Emma is desperate to find out what happened - and that her loved ones are safe - but remembering the truth could be the most dangerous thing of all...

An addictive and page-turning psychological thriller that will have you looking over your shoulder and checking the doors are locked. If you love B.A. Paris, Shari Lapena and K.L. Slater, The Last Thing I Saw is for you.

Previously published as Don't Let Me Die. This edition contains significant editorial revisions.
